CADET VISITS TO OTHER SQUADRONS

It is the Oklahoma Wing Policy that any cadet wishing to visit another squadron must have the written consent of their own squadron commanders before they may do so. The cadet must also have permission from the squadron commander of the squadron the cadet wishes to visit.

A cadet wishing to visit another squadron must show just cause for the visit.

A cadet visiting another squadron will do so in uniform and is considered a representative from their squadron. Therefore, that cadet should conduct his/her self with pride in their appearance and in their squadron.
